

~~SECRET~~

TAB A

TERMS OF REFERENCE, INTELLIGENCE LIAISON OFFICER [REDACTED]

25X1X7

1. Mission

25X1X7

The Intelligence Liaison Officer (ILO) will develop and maintain an exchange of intelligence and estimates [REDACTED] and will participate in the estimative, analytical, and evaluative work of that committee as feasible.

2. Functions

25X1X7

a. Procure and transmit to the Director of Central Intelligence through the Deputy Director/Intelligence estimates, reports, evaluations, studies, and comments prepared [REDACTED] and other [REDACTED] offices as appropriate;

25X1X7

25X1X7

b. Release [REDACTED] intelligence reports and estimates prepared within the DD/I offices;

25X1X7

c. Solicit [REDACTED] views on specific problems in response to Washington requests and on his own initiative;

25X1X7

d. Obtain and forward [REDACTED] comments on or contributions to papers, estimates, terms of reference, etc., referred to him by the Office of National Estimates for comment;

e. Transmit periodically his own analysis of trends and developments in the Far East;

25X1X7

25X1X7

25X1X7

f. To the extent appropriate, conduct liaison [REDACTED] on behalf of CIA's office of Research and Reports and with Watch and current intelligence activities on behalf of the office of Current Intelligence;

g. Use his good offices to facilitate cooperation between the local representatives of the various IAC offices;

3. Administration

The ILO will be a senior intelligence officer nominated by the Deputy Director/Intelligence and assisted by a clerk-typist similarly supplied by the DD/I. He will be attached, for administrative purposes [REDACTED]

25X1X7

25X1X7

/s/ ROBERT AMORY, JR.
Deputy Director/Intelligence